INDEPENDENT AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Stockholders of The Transportation Group (Securities) Limited 261 Madison Avenue. Suite 1504 New York, NY 10016

We have audited the accompanying statement of financial condition of The Transportation Group (Securities) Limited (the Company) as of December 31, 2014. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit.

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the statement of financial condition in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of the statement of financial condition that is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

We conducted our audit in accordance with the standards of Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

In our opinion, the statement of financial condition referred to above presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of The Transportation Group (Securities) Limited as of December 31, 2014 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2014

1. Nature of Operations

The Transportation Group (Securities) Limited (the "Company") is a broker-dealer registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") and a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority.

The Company, a Hong Kong corporation, is a wholly-owned subsidiary of The Transportation Group (Capital) Limited ("TTGC" or the "Affiliate"). The Company maintains its place of business in New York City, within the offices of TTGC under the terms of a service agreement (Note 3).

TTGC and its subsidiaries is a boutique investment bank providing investment offerings, investment research and arrangement, and advisory services to the aviation and rail transportation industries, from offices in New York City, London and Hong Kong. TTGC specializes in the arrangement and placement of fixed income, equity and lease financings with a broad range of European, North American and Asian institutional investors, on behalf of aviation and rail clients based around the world.

The Company provides TTGC with such broker-dealer services in the United States of America as TTGC may at any time require including the private placement of debt and equity securities with clients located in the United States of America, in accordance with the federal and state securities laws and rules and regulations.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Presentation

This financial statement was prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP") which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statement and the amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from these estimates.

Revenue Recognition

Revenues from the Company's investment banking services are earned in accordance with the terms of contracts it enters into with its clients. The Company recognizes investment banking fees as revenue when such revenues are earned, as stipulated by the related contract, and are no longer subject to negotiation or refund. Revenues from advisory services are recognized when the Company has substantially completed its work with respect to such transaction.

Notes to Financial Statements December 31, 2014

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Income Taxes

The Company files separate federal, state and local income tax returns. The provision for income taxes included in the statement of operations represents minimum New York State and local taxes as required by these jurisdictions. The company has federal and state net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $30,000 as of December 31, 2014, which are available to offset future taxable income, if any. A full valuation allowance has been established for the Company's net operating loss carryforwards.

At December 31, 2014, management has determined that the Company has no uncertain tax positions that would require financial statement recognition. Tax years subsequent to 2011 remain subject to examination by tax authorities.

3. Transactions with related parties

Under the terms of a service agreement between TTGC and the Company (the "Agreement") dated January 1, 2009, TTGC is to make available to the Company sufficient office space, other facilities and personnel for the performance of the Company's broker-dealer services provided to TTGC. The Company agrees to pay a management fee to TTGC, equal to 99% of its broker-dealer services revenue, net of any expenses actually paid by the Company, for such office space, facilities and personnel. In accordance with the Agreement, the Company is obligated to pay the management fees to TTGC only upon the collection of the broker-dealer services' revenue. TTGC has indemnified the Company for any liability arising from the performance of its services under the Agreement. The financial condition and results of operations of the Company, as reported, are not necessarily indicative of the results that would have been reported had the Company operated independently.

Under the terms of an expense sharing agreement between TTGC and the Company (the "Expense Agreement"), effective January 1, 2007, the Company agrees to pay a monthly fee of $1,000 for Office and Administrative services provided by TTGC.

4. Regulatory Requirements

The Company is subject to SEC Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, which requires the maintenance of minimum net capital and requires that the ratio of aggregate indebtedness to net capital, both as defined, shall not exceed 15 to 1. At December 31, 2014, the Company had net capital of $4,500 which was deficient of the net capital required by $500. The deficiency existed from April 29, 2014 to June 16, 2015.

In accordance with the FINRA membership agreement applicable to the Partnership, it is designated to operate under the exemptive provision of paragraph (k)(2)(i) of SEC Rule 15c3-3. The Company does not handle cash or securities on behalf of customers.
